Royal Window and Door Profiles Expands
Distribution Presence in Western Canada

Woodbridge, Ontario, March 15, 2010 -- Royal Window and Door Profiles, a division of Royal Group, Inc., is pleased to announce the signing of a distribution partnership agreement with British Columbia-based Coniston Products.

This partnership positions Royal Window and Door Profiles to meet the growing demand for its door products in Western Canada. The distribution center will supply Royal patio doors and will focus on providing customers with professional, efficient service for their patio door needs. We invite current and prospective customers to visit the new distribution center to learn more about the widely popular Opera™ and Jazz™ patio doors, in both a fully glazed and unglazed versions. Both patio door styles are ENERGY Star qualified. As with all Royal patio doors, they are maintenance-free, easy to install, and provide homeowners with beautiful alternatives to traditional doors.

Royal Window and Door Profiles' customers will benefit from Coniston's extensive experience in warehousing and distribution of products for the window and door industry. Simon Fitzgerald, Key Account Manager at Royal Window and Door Profiles, Central Division, will coordinate the sales effort along with Coniston's President Chris Meekley and Coniston's International Sales Director Tony Scigliano.

"We are very pleased to announce the opening of this distribution center in conjunction with Coniston in British Columbia. Our growing customer base in Western Canada necessitates an expanded presence in the area to better support our customers. We have carefully selected Coniston as a partner. Their experience, in particular in the window and door industry, will be invaluable to Royal Group's customers in Western Canada." stated Mark Fanelli, General Manager of Royal Window & Door Profiles.

The distribution center is located at 7550 MacDonald Road, Delta, B.C. and will complement the already existing distribution center in Woodbridge, Ontario.
